

Policy on Antisocial Forces of UOB Tokyo

UOB Tokyo hereby declare the following policy to prevent harm caused by groups or individuals who pursue economic gain through violence, intimidation and fraudulent tactics (so-called antisocial forces).

1. UOB Tokyo will never provide funds to antisocial forces.
2. UOB Tokyo not have any relationship whatsoever, including business relationships, with antisocial forces.
3. UOB Tokyo will respond to unjust demands made by antisocial forces and take legal action on both the civil and criminal fronts.
4. Even if the unjust demands made by antisocial forces are based on business misconduct or employee misconduct, the Bank will never engage in backroom deals to cover up the matter.
5. UOB Tokyo will respond as an organisation to any unjust demands made by antisocial forces and ensure the safety of its employees.
6. In preparation for unjust demands from antisocial forces, UOB Tokyo will maintain close cooperative relationships with external specialist organisations such as the police, Anti-Organized Crime Campaign Center of Tokyo, and lawyers.
