The FOMC left the Fed Funds Target Rate unchanged at 3.50%-3.75% in Jul for a fifth consecutive meeting, but the decision was split 9-3, with three regional Fed presidents voting for a 25bp hike. Fed Chairman Warsh's recent Jackson Hole speech (28 Aug) reinforced the message from the Jul FOMC minutes that inflation remains the dominant policy concern amid generally favourable growth and labour market conditions. We continue to maintain our base case the Fed will remain on hold through 2026 before resuming gradual rate cuts in 2027 as the transitory inflation (due to oil prices) fades. But the emphasis on inflation risks, together with Warsh's explicit commitment to achieving price stability and his reluctance to pre-commit to future policy actions, reinforces the elevated risks of policy tightening this year, with markets increasing the probability of a Sep FOMC rate increase at nearly 67% (as of 2 Sep) versus 36% prior to Warsh's speech.

Globally, inflation risks stemming from the US-Iran conflict, AI-related cost pressures and a Super El Niño have shifted policy biases towards tightening. In Asia, central banks in Indonesia (+100bps), Philippines (+50bps), South Korea (+50bps) and Japan (+25bps) have raised rates, while the MAS tightened twice in 2026, including a very slight 25bps increase in the S$NEER slope in July to an estimated 1.25% p.a. We expect MAS to remain on hold through 2027 and given the gentler-than-expected core inflation profile, the hurdle for further MAS tightening is much higher though this cannot be entirely ruled out.

UOB's responsible financing journey: pragmatic and progressive

UOB's climate scenario analysis journey

In October 2022, we announced our commitment to achieving net zero by 2050, with a focus on 6 priority sectors

● Energy ● Built environment

Net zero targets and commitments for six sectors

Energy

Power

Reduce emissions intensity by 64% by 2030 and 98% by 2050

Automotive

Reduce emissions intensity by 58% by 2030 and net zero by 2050

Oil and gas

No new project financing for upstream oil and gas projects approved for development after 2022

Built environment

Real estate

Reduce emissions intensity by 36% by 2030 and 97% by 2050

Construction

Reduce emissions intensity by 31% by 2030 and 85% by 2050

Steel

Reduce emissions intensity by 20% by 2030 and 92% by 2050

Covers ~60% of our corporate lending portfolio

We focused on two significant, high-emitting ecosystems, energy and built environment, spanning 6 sectors based on:

- Significant contributors to GHG emissions regionally: ~73% of global emissions¹

- Material to UOB's corporate lending portfolio: ~60% of total corporate lending portfolio

Our commitments were defined in line with guidance by the Net Zero Banking Alliance (NZBA) and the Glasgow Financial Alliance for Net Zero (GFANZ)

We are progressing well on our net zero targets, and are trending below the reference pathways

Nature risks: Our portfolio has low to medium risk, with ~20% estimated to have material impacts and/or dependencies on nature

Double materiality sector assessment

Spread of high to low impacts and dependencies for sectors present in our portfolio

- Overall portfolio risk is low to medium based on direct sector scores
- 5 sub-sectors with material impacts and/or dependencies on nature (~20% of exposure)
- Agriculture, Metals & Mining and Built Environment present most material nature-related risks and opportunities and are the focus of our analysis
- Oil & Gas has material impacts on nature and is minimally considered for nature dependencies. It is not prioritised because opportunities in O&G are primarily in net zero related activities
- Waste management is not prioritized due to limited portfolio exposure (0.1%)

Nature opportunities: ~60% of our sustainable finance portfolio is focused on the nature-climate nexus
