Message from the Chairman of UOB Group Art Committee

At no time in the 40-year history of the UOB Painting of the Year (POY) competition has the vital role of art in connecting communities been more important. Artists in this year's UOB POY competition have captured the fortitude, compassion and resilience of people as they look beyond immediate concerns and find rays of hope for a better future.

This year, we have seen a record number of UOB POY entries across the region. The entries ignite the imagination and demonstrate the ingenuity of artists to connect with their audience. As you view this year's catalogue, I am sure you will be drawn to the powerful messages expressed in each piece.

As the leading patron of the arts in Asia, making art accessible to a wider audience is a core part of our giving back to the community. This year, we continued our online UOB Art Explorer programme to encourage artistic exploration while also aiding mental well-being through art tutorials, art therapy sessions and virtual exhibitions. To engage budding artists, we held Artist's Conversation sessions virtually, thereby enabling established artists to share their experiences with the next generation. We also held physical art exhibitions at the UOB Art Gallery in Singapore and China to profile UOB POY artists and their works. Our long-term partnership with National Gallery Singapore and Museum MACAN Indonesia continues to promote the enjoyment of Southeast Asian art with more people.

We are proud that over the last four decades, our flagship regional art programme, the UOB POY Competition has grown in prestige. It is now the longest running art competition in Singapore. Since 1982, the competition has helped more than 1,000 artists across Singapore, Indonesia, Malaysia and Thailand share their works on a larger stage. Past winners of the competition include Mr Goh Beng Kwan, the late Mr Anthony Poon and Mr Chua Ek Kay who received the Singapore Cultural Medallion, Singapore's most distinguished art award.

To mark our 40th anniversary, we are introducing a new award trophy modelled after Vitalità, a bronze sculpture commissioned by UOB and created by foremost Italian sculptor, Anna Chiara Spellini. The new UOB POY award trophy aims to illuminate the passion of artists as they express their artistic vision.

In elevating the forward thinking in visual arts, we are launching the UOB Digital Art Grant in partnership with the National Arts Council Singapore. The grant will be part of the Sustain the Arts Fund to foster transformation and to support the art community in realising creative pursuits using digital technologies.

A special 40th Anniversary exhibition will also be held in the coming months to share the story and journey of the UOB POY competition.

I would like to congratulate all our winners and thank our esteemed judges and partners who have helped make our journey in art possible. As we move into the future of art that brings exciting possibilities ahead, let us continue to appreciate the special role artists play in society as they help to challenge, to inspire and to connect us all.

Message from Guest-of-Honour

Art enriches each of us in different ways. It can create a sense of wonder, challenge our perceptions and assumptions, or give us enjoyment through its aesthetic appeal. Art can also bring people together by uplifting our spirits and giving tangible expression to our shared heritage, values and identity, thereby strengthening our sense of belonging.

For the arts to flourish and grow, it is important to foster a thriving ecosystem through strong and sustained partnerships among the public, private and people sectors. A diverse and self-sustaining arts ecosystem promulgates our sense of community and identity.

I encourage everyone to consider how we can individually support our arts, whether as a patron, volunteer, fan, or simply a member of the audience. As collectors, corporates, and individuals, we can all play a role, and together, foster an arts scene that Singapore can continue to be proud of.

I thank UOB for its committed and generous support for the arts, which has been recognised by the National Arts Council (NAC) through them receiving NAC's Distinguished Patron of the Arts for the past 17 years. I am glad that UOB will continue to be a stalwart champion of the arts into the future.

Congratulations to all the winners of the 40th UOB Painting of the Year competition and to UOB on yet another successful edition of this signature initiative.

President of the Republic of Singapore

Uncovering artistic talent and deepening art appreciation over 40 years

UOB plays an active role in communities across the region, most notably through our long-term support of visual arts. We believe that art can transcend language, culture, geography and time. This aligns with our commitment to connect and to strengthen bonds in our communities.

Over the last four decades, UOB has championed Southeast Asian art through a wide range of visual arts programmes, partnerships and outreach initiatives across Asia. The annual UOB Painting of the Year art competition which is held in Singapore, Indonesia, Malaysia and Thailand has helped to uncover a new generation of great Southeast Asian artists and contributed to greater awareness and appreciation of art.

2021 UOB Painting of the Year ICONIC TROPHY

Anna Chiara Spellini

Foremost Italian sculptor, Ms Anna Chiara Spellini was born in 1945 in the province of Varese to a sculptor father and a painter mother.

From a young age, Ms Spellini was exposed to museums, churches, art and architecture and began her artistic endeavours under her parents' guidance and influence. She studied the masters Giotto, Michelangelo, Piero della Francesca and Leonardo da Vinci. Sculpturing allows her to express herself and frees her from worldly concerns.

The richness and breadth of her life experiences have undoubtedly shaped her perspective and artistic development. She focuses on figurative sculpture and sculpts the human body and busts of children and women. She is a strong advocate of original pieces of sculpture and does not supply them to the mass market.

To date, Ms Spellini has created more than 300 individual works of art, in bronze and marble. These include a 12-metre high bronze sculpture, Vitalità at UOB Plaza, Shanghai, China, a life-size antique car (Cottureau Populaire) in bronze for the Nicolis Museum of Vintage Cars in Verona, Italy, and the Black Charging Bull at the Gardens by the Bay in Singapore.

40th UOB Painting of the Year Award Trophy

Design inspired by Vitalità by Anna Chiara Spellini

On the 40th Anniversary of the UOB Painting of the Year regional art competition, we are introducing a new iconic award trophy design from this year. It is modelled after Vitalità (生命力), a bronze sculpture by foremost Italian sculptor, Ms Anna Chiara Spellini. The sculpture* was specially commissioned by UOB.

In the concept of 'dao' 道, the vital energy of the universe is 'qi' 气. Embodying the 'qi' in the visceral line of this sculpture, Ms Spellini has endowed the form of Vitalità with the vigour of being ready to move upward and forward. It is a life force that creates newness, growth, good fortune and abundance for all.

Vitalità begins life as a pillar of strength that is motivated into physical movement, as though stepping forward. The front of the sculpture is arched backward, while the back is like a curved bow, ready to spring out.

The new iconic UOB Painting of the Year award trophy aims to illuminate the passion of artists, inspiring their imagination and ingenuity as they express their artistic vision.

* The Vitalità bronze sculpture was installed at UOB Plaza Shanghai, China in 2018 on the official opening of the new headquarters building. It will also be installed at the UOB Plaza building in Singapore and across Southeast Asia countries.

UOB Art Gallery

The UOB Art Gallery in Singapore was set up to support local and regional artists, and to share their art with the wider community.

Located at the heart of the Central Business District, the UOB Art Gallery is a place where members of the public can appreciate works from the UOB Art Collection and winning artworks from the UOB Painting of the Year competition. From time to time, we use the Gallery as a space for exhibitions by the competition's winning artists, guest artists and community partners.

We invite you to visit the UOB Art Gallery at the ground floor of UOB Plaza 1 or www.UOBandArt.com to view the winning paintings.

UOB Art Explorer

The UOB Art Explorer is an online visual arts programme designed to bring the benefits of art to everyone from children to adults in homes around the world. Against the backdrop of uncertainty and social isolation experienced by many people amid the COVID-19 pandemic, the UOB Art Explorer aims to connect all to new worlds and perspectives through its five art initiatives, which includes art therapy workshops, tutorials, resources and exhibitions.

Beyond art appreciation, the UOB Art Explorer aims to promote mental well-being through the process of creating art. Art therapy sessions are being offered through its Art As Therapy initiative. The UOB Art Explorer also enables people of all ages to create their own artworks through Art At Home which features tutorials led by UOB Painting of the Year winners on various art techniques using home-based materials such as coloured pencils and crayons.

In line with UOB's commitment to champion art in Southeast Asia, the Bank will also continue to showcase selected artists and artworks from the region through this online art programme. Viewers will be able to explore these works of art through Art Virtually, a series of virtual exhibitions displayed at the UOB Art Gallery and Art In Story, which features selected artworks from the UOB Art Collection every month.

To take part in the five initiatives of the UOB Art Explorer, namely Art As Therapy, Art At Home, Art In Colour, Art Virtually and Art In Story, please visit www.UOBandArt.com.

UOB Art Collection

UOB started collecting paintings by Singapore artists in the 1970s to support local art. Today, we have more than 2,500 artworks in our four-decade old corporate art collection including paintings by Singapore’s early masters such as the late Cheong Soo Pieng, Chen Wen Hsi and Georgette Chen. Every year, the winning paintings from the UOB Painting of the Year competition are added to the UOB Art Collection.

The UOB Art Collection is currently displayed at the head office in Singapore as well as at its network of over 500 offices worldwide.

UOB supports visual arts by cultivating awareness and appreciation among the public, including the acquisition of artworks and the exhibition of the works from the UOB Art Collection.

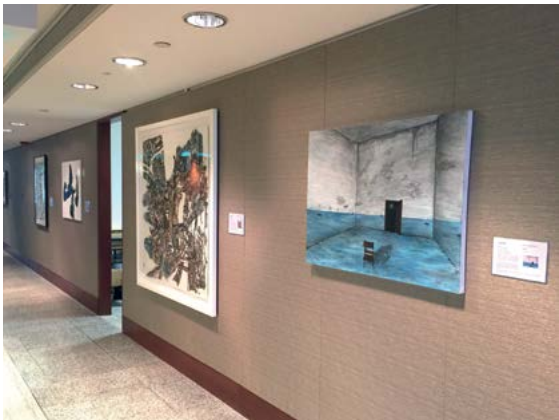

To raise the profile of our corporate art collection, we partner with art galleries and institutions, such as National Gallery Singapore, Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts and ION Art Gallery to showcase selected artworks from our collection.
