Message from the Chairman of UOB Art Advisory Panel

Art inspires and connects people, reflecting culture, identity and aspiration. Throughout the pandemic over the past two years, the art community has shown resilience and unity in their response to adversity. With the gradual reopening this year, opportunities arise for artists to pursue their artistic vision and to expand their horizon.

In the 41st edition of our flagship UOB Painting of the Year (POY) competition, the entries continue to impress and to connect with the audience, demonstrating the ingenuity of artists to tell their stories on canvas. The creativity and powerful messages conveyed through themes like environmental sustainability, peace and reminiscence will draw you into the artists' world.

As the leading patron of the arts in Asia, we remain steadfast in doing right by our community. We continue to make art accessible to a wider audience through a diverse range of visual art programmes, partnerships and community outreach.

Across our regional footprint, as the Lead Partner at Art Jakarta 2022, we presented 30 Southeast Asian artworks from UOB POY artists, putting our winning artists on the international stage. At Art Central Hong Kong 2022, an interactive art installation that interweaved traditional ink with digital technology was commissioned for visitors to experience mindfulness.

In Singapore, we resumed the Artist's Conversation physical sessions in schools, partnering UOB POY artists to enrich more than 1,600 students. Thematic art exhibitions were held at the UOB Art Gallery Singapore to raise the appreciation of art, including a special exhibition on Australian botanical art. The inaugural INSTINC D:Art Fest 2022 supported by the UOB Digital Art Grant, recognised three aspiring artists for their outstanding digital artworks, celebrating digital art in both the physical and digital space.

To further strengthen the art ecosystem in Singapore, we have signed a three-year Memorandum of Understanding with the National Arts Council Singapore focusing on three areas of social impact: To grow the value of the art, expand its outreach to new audiences and promote the wellness of art. This strategic private-public sector collaboration aims to catalyse more ideas, resources and ecosystem partners in developing a vibrant art scene in Singapore.

In elevating forward thinking in visual art, we are launching SkyArtverse by UOB in Decentraland, the first immersive art theme park in the metaverse. Through this initiative, we hope to present a differentiated virtual experience in art appreciation, broaden our engagement with audiences and provide new opportunities for UOB POY artists to share their works globally.

I would like to congratulate all our winners and thank our esteemed judges and partners who have helped make our journey in art possible. With the exciting possibilities ahead, we look forward to foster a thriving art ecosystem in Singapore, and to enable artistic talents to scale greater heights.

Message from Guest-of-Honour

Art plays an important role in our lives as individuals, and collectively as a nation by uplifting spirits and giving expressions to our shared heritage. It strengthens our sense of belonging, uniting us as one.

Singapore has a strong and vibrant art community, one that spans across different generations and a wide range of art forms. Our arts landscape continues to reflect a rich and distinctive Singaporean identity, while remaining open and welcoming to new influences and ideas.

As one of the most recognised competitions in the region, it has helped nurture many talented Southeast Asian artists and profiled them to audiences here and abroad. The competition aims to uncover the next generation of artists, and contribute to a deeper understanding and appreciation of the contemporary art and artists of Southeast Asia, which is important to our visual arts ecosystem.

Art philanthropy plays a crucial role in the development of our local arts scene. United Overseas Bank (UOB) has remained an unwavering supporter of the arts even as the community navigated the challenges of COVID-19 in the past few years. With the support of patrons like UOB, we have been able to encourage our artists in their crafts, such that they can continue to bring inspiration to Singaporeans, and deepen our sense of belonging and identity.

I encourage everyone to consider how we can individually support our arts, whether as a patron, volunteer, or simply a member of the audience.

Congratulations to all the winners of the 41st UOB Painting of the Year competition!

Uncovering artistic talent and deepening art appreciation over 41 years

UOB plays an active role in communities across the region, most notably through our long-term support of visual arts. We believe that art can transcend language, culture, geography and time. This aligns with our commitment to connect and to strengthen bonds in our communities.

Over the last four decades, UOB has championed Southeast Asian art through a wide range of visual arts programmes, partnerships and outreach initiatives across Asia. The annual UOB Painting of the Year art competition which is held in Singapore, Indonesia, Malaysia and Thailand has helped to uncover a new generation of great Southeast Asian artists and contributed to greater awareness and appreciation of art.

UOB Painting of the Year Iconic Award Trophy

Design inspired by Vitalità by Anna Chiara Spellini

In the concept of 'dao' 道, the vital energy of the universe is 'qi' 气. Embodying the 'qi' in the visceral line of this sculpture, Ms Spellini has endowed the form of Vitalità with the vigour of being ready to move upward and forward. It is a life force that creates newness, growth, good fortune and abundance for all.

Vitalità begins life as a pillar of strength that is motivated into physical movement, as though stepping forward. The front of the sculpture is arched backward, while the back is like a curved bow, ready to spring out.

The new iconic UOB Painting of the Year award trophy aims to illuminate the passion of artists, inspiring their imagination and ingenuity as they express their artistic vision.

On the 40th Anniversary of the UOB Painting of the Year regional art competition in 2021, we have introduced a new iconic award trophy design. It is modelled after Vitalità (生命力), a bronze sculpture by foremost Italian sculptor, Ms Anna Chiara Spellini. The sculpture* was specially commissioned by UOB.

* The Vitalità bronze sculpture was installed at UOB Plaza Shanghai, China in 2018 on the official opening of the new headquarters building. It is also installed at UOB Plaza Building in Singapore and across our international network soon.

UOB Art Gallery

The UOB Art Gallery in Singapore was set up to support local and regional artists, and to share their art with the wider community.

Located at the heart of the Central Business District, the UOB Art Gallery is a place where members of the public can appreciate works from the UOB Art Collection and winning artworks from the UOB Painting of the Year competition. From time to time, we use the Gallery as a space for exhibitions by the competition's winning artists, guest artists and community partners.

Visit the UOB Art Gallery at the ground floor of UOB Plaza 1, or visit SkyArtverse by UOB in the metaverse at Decentraland for an immersive experience of the winning artworks from the 41st UOB Painting of the Year. Find out more at UOBandArt.com.

The UOB Art Explorer is an online visual arts programme designed during the COVID-19 pandemic to bring the benefits of art to everyone from children to adults in homes around the world. The programme aims to connect all to new worlds and perspectives through its five art initiatives, which includes art therapy workshops, tutorials, resources and exhibitions.

Beyond art appreciation, the UOB Art Explorer aims to promote mental well-being through the process of creating art. Art therapy sessions are being offered through its Art As Therapy initiative. The UOB Art Explorer also enables people of all ages to create their own artworks through Art At Home which features tutorials led by UOB Painting of the Year winners on various art techniques using home-based materials such as coloured pencils and crayons.

In line with UOB's commitment to champion art in Southeast Asia, the Bank will also continue to showcase selected artists and artworks from the region through this online art programme. Viewers will be able to explore these works of art through Art Virtually, a series of virtual exhibitions displayed at the UOB Art Gallery and Art In Story, which features selected artworks from the UOB Art Collection.

To take part in the five initiatives of the UOB Art Explorer, namely Art As Therapy, Art At Home, Art In Colour, Art Virtually and Art In Story, please visit UOBandArt.com.

UOB Art Collection

UOB started collecting paintings by Singapore artists in the 1970s to support local art. Today, we have more than 2,500 artworks in our four-decade old corporate art collection including paintings by Singapore's early masters such as the late Cheong Soo Pieng, Chen Wen Hsi and Georgette Chen. Every year, the winning paintings from the UOB Painting of the Year competition are added to the UOB Art Collection.

The UOB Art Collection is currently displayed at the head office in Singapore as well as at its international network of over 500 offices worldwide.

UOB supports visual arts by cultivating awareness and appreciation among the public, including the acquisition of artworks and the exhibition of the works from the UOB Art Collection.

To raise the profile of our corporate art collection, we partner with art galleries and institutions, such as National Gallery Singapore, Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts and ION Art Gallery to showcase selected artworks from our collection.
