

What small businesses expect from their governments to help them tide over COVID-19

To understand how ASEAN small businesses are transforming their businesses to adapt to the pandemic and the challenges ahead, UOB, Accenture and Dun & Bradstreet surveyed 1,000 of these firms across five ASEAN markets – Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam.

Singapore small businesses are the most satisfied with government-led COVID-19 relief measures as compared with their ASEAN peers.

Top three relief measures small businesses want:

Top three areas where governments can provide more support for digital transformation journeys:

